KS5: History - Tudors

Wyedean
School and Sixth Form Centre
Aspire together, achieve together
adfecere pariter, perfecere pariter

Year 13

Elizabeth I

- The Golden Age
- Economy
- Catholic and Puritan threats
- Poverty and social policies
- Foreign policy
- Regions
- Rebellions
- Religious settlement
- Mary Queen of Scots
- Succession
- Finance
- Marriage to Philip
- Wyatt's rebellion
- Religious change
- Character and aims

Mary

- Character
- Government
- Foreign policy
- Was there a mid-Tudor crisis?
- Consolidation of power
- Government and parliament
- Northumberland's fall
- Western and Kett's rebellion
- Northumberland's Government
- Legacy of Henry VIII
- Was Henry VIII a good King?
- Humanism

Edward VI

- Foreign Policy
- Northumberland's religious changes
- Somerset's fall
- Somerset's religious changes
- Somerset's Government
- Economy and trade
- Rebellions
- Regions
- Foreign Policy 1530-4
- Why did Henry want a divorce?
- How did Government change in the 1530s?
- Wolsey's domestic policies
- Society

Year 12

Henry VIII

- Aims and character
- Foreign policy 1509-29
- Wolsey's fall
- Faction in Government 1540-47
- Reformation and the Dissolution
- Rise of Wolsey
- Church and humanism
- Society
- Financial Policy
- Government
- Why did Henry VII secure his throne?

Henry VII

- Was Henry VII a good King?
- Economy and trade
- Foreign policy
- Control of the nobility
- Dynastic rebellions
- Why was Henry VII insecure in 1483?